

COVID-19 BULLETIN

April 6, 2020

Dear APAS Members:

Welcome to our second information bulletin focused on the impacts of COVID-19 on Saskatchewan agriculture. To ensure that you receive the most current regional information related to COVID-19 and agriculture, please subscribe to this newsletter and share it with your contacts.

Complete the **UPDATED** APAS COVID-19 Farm Survey by April 12

Thank you to everyone who completed the first version of our COVID-19 Farm Survey. For information on the results, keep reading.

The updated version of the survey is now available at apas.ca/survey. Please complete it now, share it widely, and plan to complete updated versions each week (new versions will go live every Monday morning).

Receiving your weekly responses will ensure that we have up-to-date, real-time data to share directly with government officials on an ongoing basis as the COVID-19 situation continues to evolve.

COVID-19 Survey Results (March 24 - April 5)

Since the launch of our survey on March 24, over 250 Saskatchewan producers responded to share their current and anticipated experiences related to COVID-19 and agriculture.

We have compiled the results, and a summary report can be viewed here. In addition, we will be sharing the results of each week's survey directly with government officials, the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, the APAS Board of Directors, and the public.

Be sure to complete the survey each week so that we can share the most current information with decision makers in Saskatchewan and Canadian agriculture!

Updated Supply Chain information

APAS continues to monitor the supply chain impacts arising from COVID-19. We have updated our agricultural supply chain information and you can read it here. Please notify us directly of any supply-chain disruptions in APAS's weekly survey.

COVID-19 resources

APAS has compiled reputable COVID-19 resources related to agriculture. They are available on our website and updated regularly.

NEW this week:

- Recommendations on Branding/Processing Time for Canadian beef operations from the Canadian Cattlemen's Association
- Message from the President of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture

We will continue to keep in touch as the situation evolves. Until then, take care of yourselves and your families, and let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

Best regards,
APAS Board of Directors and staff
