

APAS welcomes new federal Ag Minister

Thanks the Honourable Lawrence MacAulay for his work as Minister

March 1, 2019 – For Immediate Release – APAS is looking forward to working with the Honourable Marie-Claude Bibeau in her new role as Minister for Agriculture and Agri-Food.

“We have had many productive conversations with Lawrence MacAulay during his time as federal Ag Minister,” said APAS President Todd Lewis. “His knowledge of agriculture has been appreciated and we wish him well in his new assignment as Minister of Veterans Affairs.”

“APAS would like to welcome Marie-Claude Bibeau to the Agriculture portfolio,” Lewis continued. “We look forward to working with Ms. Bibeau on the issues and concerns of Saskatchewan’s farmers and ranchers.”

-30-

For further information, or to make arrangements for an interview please contact:
Colleen Hennan
Communications and Community Relations Coordinator
Agricultural Producers Association of Saskatchewan
(306)789-7774 ext.6
chennan@apas.ca

Background:

APAS is Saskatchewan’s general farm organization – formed to provide farmers and ranchers with a democratically elected, grassroots, non-partisan, producer-run organization based on rural municipal boundaries. As the united voice of agricultural producers and ranchers in Saskatchewan, we strive to represent the views of a wide variety of agricultural stakeholders in order to form comprehensive policies that can benefit all sectors of society. APAS is a member of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture.