

APAS re-elects President at 2018 AGM

November 30, 2018 – For Immediate Release – The Agricultural Producers Association of Saskatchewan Board of Directors has re-elected Todd Lewis, APAS Representative for RM of Lajord #128, President for 2019. Todd farms at Gray, Saskatchewan with his family.

Mr. Lewis was first elected to the position at the end of 2016.

Ian Boxall of Tisdale was re-elected Vice-President, and Bill Prybylski of Willowbrook was elected Vice-President for the first time.

At the Annual General Meeting, APAS Representatives also elected two new Directors to the APAS board. Those individuals are highlighted in bold.

District One	James Vogt Steven Donald	RM of Francis #127 RM of Martin #122
District Two	Todd Lewis Terry Anthony	RM of Lajord #128 RM of Baildon #131
District Three	Rick Jensen Devin Harlick	RM of Webb #138 RM of Piapot #110
District Four	Ian Boxall Bill Prybylski	RM of Connaught #457 RM of Garry #245
District Five	Donavon Block Mickey Palfy	RM of Leroy, #339 RM of Viscount #341
District Six	Scott Owens Bill Warrington	RM of Eldon #471 RM of Antelope Park #471

32 resolutions were passed during the three-day AGM (see attached).

APAS President Todd Lewis also announced at the beginning of the conference that APAS would be applying for intervenor status in the province's court of reference case against the federal government's carbon plan.

The 2018 APAS AGM was held November 27 – 29 in Regina.

For more information or to arrange an interview, please contact:

Colleen Hennan
Communications and Community Relations Coordinator
Agricultural Producers Association of Saskatchewan
(306) 789-7774 ext. 6
chennan@apas.ca

Background: APAS is Saskatchewan’s general farm organization – formed to provide farmers and ranchers with a democratically elected, grassroots, non-partisan, producer-run organization based on rural municipal boundaries. As the united voice of agricultural producers and ranchers in Saskatchewan, we strive to represent the views of a wide variety of agricultural stakeholders in order to form comprehensive policies that can benefit all sectors of society. APAS is a member of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture.